Ranong is the first southern province on the western coast, located 568 kilometres from Bangkok. It is known for its long rainy season, which lasts for 8 months each year. A mountainous and heavily forested province. It was originally settled by the Hokkian Chinese, and their strong influence remains evident in the town. Ranong town is also a gateway to Myanmar, with colorful longboats ferrying produce and people across the narrow divide that separates the two countries. Ranong contains resources of tin and various natural attractions such as: hot springs, mangrove forest and a peaceful island.

Ranong is administratively divided into 5 Amphoes: Amphoe Mueang Ranong, Amphoe Kapoe, Amphoe Kra Buri (with the Kra Isthmus which is the narrowest part of the Malay Peninsula with a length of 50 km.), Amphoe La-un, and Amphoe Suk Samran.

Laem Son National Park (อุทยานแห่งชาติแหลมสน)

was declared a national park on 9 August, 1983. It covers a total area of 315 sq. km. or 196,875 rai, comprising coastal districts from Tambon Ratchakrut, Amphoe Mueang Ranong, southward via Tambon Muang Kluang, Tambon Kapoe, Tambon Bang Hin, Tambon Nakha, Tambon Kamphuan, Amphoe Kapoe, Ranong province, to Tambon Khura, Amphoe Khura Buri, Phang-nga province. It also covers islands in the Andaman Sea; such as, Ko Khang Khao and Mu Ko Kam.

The National Park has two climates: rainy season during May-November and summer during December-April.

Ao Khao Khwai, Ko Kam Tok

There are interests in this National Park; such as,

Hat Bang Ben (หาดบางเบน) A long and vast sandy beach, shaded by pine trees along the beach, it is where the National Park headquarters is located. Visitors will enjoy the scenic view of islands from here.

Hat Laem Son (หาดแหลมสน) Only 4 km. next to Hat Bang Ben, a clean white sandy beach provides home for various kinds of birds. This place is best for bird-watching and camping.

Ko Khangkhao (เกาะค้างคาว) A fine sandy beach island with Hat Hin Ngam (a gravel beach) in the north. It takes about 40 minutes to Bang Ben Beach by boat.

Ko Kam Tok or Ao Khao Khwai (เกาะกำตก หรืออ่าวเขาควาย) has a curve-shaped inlet; tourists can see the bay that curves to nearly make a circle. A national park's ranger unit is located here to facilitate tourists. Travelling to Ko Kam Tok from Ko Khangkhao takes approximately 20 minutes by boat.

To get there: From Ranong Municipality take Highway No. 4 (Ranong-Phang-nga) around 45 km. or 6 km. from Amphoe Kapoe, at Km. 657 with a right turn for another 10 km.

Hat Praphat or Hat Hin Thung (หาดประพาส หรือหาดหินทุ่ง)

is located at Mu 2 Tambon Kamphuan, approximately 90 km. from Ranong on Highway No. 4 (Ranong-Phang-nga), or 30 km. from Amphoe Kapoe with a right turn at Km. 702 into a dirt road for another 3 km. to the National Park's Ranger Unit. Hat Praphat is a large beach shaded by pine trees similar to Hat Bang Ben.

Namtok La-ong Dao

Namtok La-ong Dao (น้ำตกละอองดาว) is located in Tambon Ban Na in part of the Khlong Nakha Wildlife Sanctuary. Surrounded by a verdant moist evergreen forest, it is renowned as a scenic waterfall of Ranong province, with a cascade of water splashing down a rocky cliff interspersed with green shrubs. The route to the waterfall is rather difficult. Visitors will have to wade through the stream and climb up a steep mountain, so they have to be strong and healthy. They also have to be well-prepared with trekking and camping gear like well-fitting clothes for water wading and mountain climbing, leech proof socks, hammock, flysheet, raincoat, water bottle, waterproof bag or backpack, etc. The trip may take 2 days and 1 night or 3 days and 2 nights, and trekkers are required to contact the Khlong Nakha Wildlife Sanctuary Tel. 0 7787 4210 to seek permission for guidance.

To get there: From Amphoe Kapoe, take highway no. 4 for some 25 km., turn left at Km. 685-686 for 200 m. to reach the Khlong Nakha Wildlife Sanctuary headquarters to contact the ranger before continuing on for another 45 km. to the Ban Na Ranger Station to prepare for trekking to the waterfall.

Amphoe Suk Samran

Khlong Nakha Wildlife Sanctuary (เขตรักษาพันธุ์สัตว์ป่าคลองนาคา) is located about 25 km. from the district township at Km. 685-686 on Highway No. 4. Wildlife of different types and species are scattered all around this evergreen tropical forest, together with a beautiful waterfall "Namtok Nueng Phan Met" (1,000-metre Waterfall), making the sanctuary even more attractive for nature-loving visitors. Admission fee for Adult 200 Baht and children 100 Baht. For more information Tel. 0 7787 4210

Ban Thale Nok (บ้านทะเลนอก)

is located in Tambon Kamphuan, has the area approximately 44 sq. km., the livelihood of this Muslim community depends on natural resources in the mangrove area and on the self sufficiency basis. This Muslim community once received the Award of Outstanding Performance in the category of Ecotourism Attraction in the Thailand Tourism Awards 2008.
